

Kabbalistic Journey of the Soul

Birth, Death, Afterlife & Reincarnation in Jewish Mysticism

Simcha Raphael

October 19 - 21 2018

Course 5702-411/Tuition $370 ($335 Members) plus accommodations

Within the mystical tradition of Kabbalah, we find depictions of the ever-changing journey of the soul—from birth to death, crossing into the world beyond, and then reincarnation.

Come explore the teachings of Jewish mysticism through the Kabbalah as transformational maps of consciousness. Discover insights and wisdom that can help you navigate the enigmatic mysteries of living and dying, mourning and healing.

Join rabbinic pastor, psychotherapist, bereavement counselor, and ritual consultant Simcha Raphael and discover how the Kabbalah can be your constant guide along the journey of life and beyond.

Through the study of Kabbalistic texts, group explorations and discussions, and meditation practices, you learn to bring these profound teachings into your own life—and integrate a new understanding that informs the varied journey of your life path.

Simcha Raphael, Ph.D. is founding director of the DA'AT Institute for Death Awareness, Advocacy and Training. He received his doctorate in psychology from the California Institute of Integral Studies and was ordained as a Rabbinic Pastor by Rabbi Zalman Schachter-Shalomi. He is adjunct faculty at Bryn Athyn College and LaSalle University, works as a psychotherapist and spiritual director in Philadelphia, and is a Fellow of the Rabbis Without Borders Network. He has written extensively on death and afterlife and is author of the groundbreaking Jewish Views of the Afterlife.
